Other Permissive Deductions HCV Program

The Stockbridge Housing Authority in order to encourage economic self-sufficiency among participants in its Housing Choice Voucher program have adopted the following permissive deductions for exclusions when calculating the anticipated adjusted household income:

- The actual cost of court ordered child support paid for a child under 18 not in the participants custody not to exceed $400 per month per child up to three children and a $1200 maximum deduction per household.
  - Necessary verification must be a copy of the court order and proof of payment, such as a copy of the DOR child support payment report.
- Allowance of the medical deduction for non-elderly/non-disabled families with extremely low income as designated by the published HUD annual income limits.

A “One Time” per Lifetime Deduction

The Stockbridge Housing Authority will also provide a one-time deduction for the unreimbursed cost of tuition, books, supplies and fees for a student enrolled at least ½ time in an institution of higher learning, or similar educational program
